THE POPULAR WILL.

N ONE way and another a fairly definite idea is being obtained as to what the people of New Mexico want in the way of county salarcounty that the several candidates the people. These took the form of one official." It is unfortunate that the offices to wheh this $3,000 max-$2,000 a year in service to the peopie. We doubt if a $3,000 maximum on county offices in general will satisfy any considerable number of the taxpayers.

committee, the second of which is set some valuable expressions of popular sentiment as to salaries. The most interesting of these, next to the flat declaration that all salaries are to high, is that the county school superintendent should receive more money. The idea of paying a political bess in the office of sheriff $3,000 to $5,000 a year for doing absolutely nothing, when a trained expert is paid but $1,200 to $1,800 as school generally as the height of wasteful folly.

With the possible exception of th county clerk, the school superintendent is the only county official who does systematic, all-year-round work Of all county officers his work is most important. Under the new spirit or education, now general in New Mexico, nothing but efficiency will be tolerated in this office. The people would approve paying county school asperintendents up to $200 ; month; and this salary could well be paid in the thinly settled and pert work is most needed.

What the people want in this salary question clearly is payment for services rendered in office and not in On this basis county school superintendents are worth double the money county treasurers are worth. who have their work done by deputies at salaries ranging from $20 to $199 a month. The school men are worth three times as much as sheriffs who either do no work at all, or use the peace office for the development of a personal political machine.

In all this it is well to keep in mind one thing: It is vital to a proper adjustment of this salary graft question that YOU know how the candidate for the legislature in YOUR district is going to gland on it when it comes to a vote.
